VERSE 3
I called out to the Lord
His ears heard my cry
The earth trembled and shook
His voice split the sky
He mounted angels and
Soared on the wings of the wind

CHORUS Oh and You searched and found me in the dark and deep
 You fell like fire on my enemies
 I was drowning then your love took hold of me

CHORUS And Your love came down into the raging sea
 And it lifted my head gave me breath to breathe
 Your voice it thundered through the noise that
 You loved me, oh You loved me

Oh and You loved me, unconditionally
With a love never failing
Oh You loved me more than I can dream
You'll never leave or forsake me
Oh, you love me
